Nursery Newsletter
12th November 2026

This week:

In Literacy we have been reading The Leaf Thief book. The children have been text detectives, predicting who has stolen the leaf.
In Maths we have been learning about positions and using positional language to play a variety of games. We have enjoyed singing the Hokey Cokey.
In our topic work we have been learning about firework safety, making firework pictures and understanding why we wear a poppy to remember the soldiers and animals in the war.

Next week:

We continue to explore the themes of Autumn and the Leaf Thief book, we will discover the wind stole the squirrel's leaf! We will make kites and explore the wind.

Learning Links at home:
-Can you collect different shapes, colours and sizes of leaves?
-Can you describe where things are around the house using positional language?
